

'Support, care and hope for local people and those who love them'
St Mary's Hospice provides specialised supportive and palliative care for people with life limiting conditions throughout South Cumbria.